EURUSD – DAILY

EURUSD – 4 Hour

Please bear in mind this is an example, so only the EURUSD is shown – All the charts of the rest of the currencies analysed follow in the same format as the EURUSD above is presented.

For full value attend the webinar – this report however makes it possible for people that can not attend the webinar to benefit from the information. As you can see most transactions are pending orders and the price has to travel quite a bit before reaching the entry point.
